AGREEMENT REACHED.

The Republican Joint Silver Committee in Session.

A Sub-Committee Appointed and Reaches an Agreement.

The Notes Issued to be Redeemed With Lawful Money.

The Randall Funeral Services to be Held in the Church.

The Republican Silver Committees.

WASHINGTON, April 15. The senate and house republican committees on the silver question met in joint session for two hours this morning. Very radical differences in the views of the senators and representatives were disclosed, but an earnest purpose was shown to harmonize the differences if possible. One of the chief points upon which the committees could not agree was the proposed increase in the national bank circulation. Such a proposition, it was said, could not secure a majority in the house and it was finally decided to commit the subject to a sub-committee of five senators and five representatives who will continue the work of hunting for common ground on which they can stand.

The two sub-committees, consisting of Senators Aldrich, Allison, Jones, Sherman and Teller, and Representatives Bayne, Bartine, Conger, McKinley and McKenna, this afternoon practically came to an agreement, although no formal action was taken. The measure which found acceptance deals with silver only. The two principal provisions are, first, the secretary of the treasury shall be directed to purchase monthly 4,500,000 ounces of silver, and, second, the notes issued therefor shall be redeemed in lawful money.

The President Objects.

DENVER, April 15. A Washington special to the Times says: There is no doubt that a free coinage bill could be fixed in both houses of congress, but in the face of the president's opposition and the certainty of a veto, of the impossibility of passing the bill over the veto, and the consequent defeat of the whole scheme for legislation on the subject, this will not be attempted.

The president has said that he would not sign a free coinage bill now, not believing that it was for this country to try the experiment alone. There is a small element in the senate that is inclined, even in the face of this difficulties, to stand out for free coinage, but all except Plumb, of Kansas, will accept the theory that "half a loaf is better than no bread" and will support the scheme as outlined above. Mr. Plumb will kick over the traces unless he changes his present attitude.

[illegible]

WASHINGTON, April 15. In accordance with the wishes of the deceased and of the widow the funeral services over Randall's remains will be held in the church instead of in the hall of the house of representatives as many members of congress wished.

The house committee on appropriations to-day adopted a lengthy tribute to the memory of Mr. Randall, setting forth his great worth, reviewing his public works, especially as a member of that committee, etc. It was entered upon the records of the committee, and a copy will be sent to the family.

A Socialist Manifesto.

BERLIN, April 15. The Volksblatt publishes a manifesto of a big meeting of socialist delegates at Halle on Sunday. It unanimously recommended the observance of May 1st as a general labor demonstration day, provided the workmen do not come in collision with the police. The demonstration, it says, ought to take the form of a day of rest. A meeting should be held to forward the establishment of the eight hour day and to make petitions for presentation to the reichstag asking for the enactment of an eight hour law. The manifesto further says that after the victories achieved by the socialists at the recent election it was not necessary to hold a public review. All the socialist members of the reichstag except one, who is in prison, signed the manifesto in which they earnestly appeal to workmen to avoid conflicts with the authorities.

Delay in Reporting the Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 15. It was understood yesterday that the tariff bill was to be reported to the house at noon to-day but it appears that matters of importance remain to be settled and the report is thereby delayed. The sugar men are here in force and were heard this morning by the republican members in secret session. The air is filled with rumors of changes in the sugar schedules. One of these stories is to the effect that the republicans have at last decided to place sugar on the free list and provide a bounty to sustain the industry in this country. The subject of carpet wool is again open to further adjustment.

The republican members of the ways and means committee have been in consultation all evening on the tariff bill, which will be reported to-morrow. There will be no change in the carpet wools but the sugar schedule, it is believed, has been revised.

A Court Martial Ordered.

WASHINGTON, April 15. The judge advocate general of the navy to-day submitted a preliminary report to Secretary Tracy in the McCalla case, recommending that Commander McCalla, of the corvette Enterprise, be tried by court martial on charges based on facts developed during the recent investigation by a court of inquiry. The secretary has approved the recommendation and ordered a court martial, to be presided over by Admiral Harmony. The court is to meet at New York on Tuesday next. No decision has been promulgated in regard to the other officers of the ship but it is thought probable that Lieutenant Ingersoll may be tried.

The Election at Butte.

BUTTE, Mont., April 15. [The] election yesterday for the election of aldermen and a mayor was a complete victory for the democrats. Only one republican was elected, and then by a majority of only three. The only issue before the people was whether they would sustain the action of the canvassing board in throwing out precinct 34. The election was held under the Australian law and it proved a grand success. The city was very quiet.

Telegrams from Delagoa bay confirm the report that a Portuguese expedition 1200 strong has gone up Shiree to attack Mponda.

A Diplomatic Secret.

WASHINGTON, April 15. The secretary of the navy this morning cabled the commander of United States ship Alliance at Gibraltar to wait there till the arrival of United States Consul Mathews and then to sail with him to his post at Tangier. It seems there are certain diplomatic reasons which the officials are not willing to disclose that make it desirable that the consul should make his appearance at Tangier on a man-of-war. He is expected to reach Gibraltar to-day.

Still Cutting Rates.

DENVER, April 15. A telegram received at the Associated press office to-night from a prominent Missouri Pacific official at Pueblo, Colorado, says that on account of irregularities on the part of certain competing lines, his company have posted a notice making a reduction in passenger rates effective on the eighteenth as follows: Pueblo to Kansas City, $3; Pueblo to St. Louis, $10.50; Pueblo to Chicago, first-class, $14; second, $11.

Pioneers in Santa Fe.

SANTA FE, April 15. The New England Society of California pioneers arrived early this morning and spent the day in visiting the historic locality and examining the interesting antiquities. The party consists of 75 pioneers with their families and friends, about 200 in all. At 10 o'clock a formal reception was held at the governor's palace.

Governor Prince welcomed the party as representatives of the old civilization of the Atlantic which had found the new empire on the Pacific, and alluded to the famous California column of volunteers which came to the rescue of New Mexico when it was invaded in 1862 and many members of which still live there. Captain [illegible], president of the society, responded in a fitting speech and introduced Hon. B. F. Whittemore, of Boston, who returned thanks for the reception. Judge Axtell, who was a pioneer and early California [illegible], also welcomed the guests. Most of the party then visited the governor's residence and at noon, by order of Colonel Snyder, the military band gave a special concert in the plaza. [illegible] in the party is General [illegible] of the Black Hawk war.

THE LOYAL LEGION.

The Loyal Legion's Great Celebration in Philadelphia.

Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the Founding of the Order.

The New Chancellor, Caprivi, Opens the Diet of Prussia.

News Regarding the Labor Situation at Various Points.

The Loyal Legion Celebration.

PHILADELPHIA, April 15. The two days celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion began this morning. All the incoming trains this morning brought commanders from the various states. It is estimated that when all have arrived the attendance will number about 3500 members.

At the meeting of the commandery in chief this morning Rutherford B. Hayes, commander-in-chief of the order, presided. General Wager Swayne, of New York, offered a resolution providing that at the next annual meeting the constitution be changed to permit of the formation of a commandery in London for the benefit of companions residing abroad. The matter was discussed till recess without action.

At the afternoon session General Swayne's resolution was withdrawn because of the belief expressed by many that it would be a dangerous precedent to change the constitution. A resolution for the abolition of grades was voted.

The Prussian Diet.

BERLIN, April 15. The Prussian diet was opened to-day by Chancellor Caprivi. In his speech he said: "It is not my intention to state the government's programme, but, having hitherto held aloof from political life I now wish to speak a few words in order to approach you personally." [Cheers.] The chancellor then referred to the important position which had been held by Bismarck and expressed the hope that in the future the empire would continue secure. The edifice of state, he said, was cemented firmly enough to resist the wind and weather, and moreover, the noble personality of the young monarch had already manifested itself at home and abroad.

He affirmed undying belief in the future of Prussia and of the German empire on Prussia's shoulders. Both could anticipate a future full of hope. The emperor had said his course would remain the same. The inauguration of a new era would, therefore, not be expected, although a more harmonious solidarity would be manifest among the members of the diet. In conclusion the chancellor said he would allow the widest scope to practical criticism and would adopt what was good wherever found. He would co-operate with all persons having at heart the interests of Prussia and aiming to foster the monarchial feeling in Prussia and a national feeling throughout the empire. [Cheers.]

The chancellor said in referring to his predecessor that it was in accordance with human nature that against a force like Bismarck's other forces could hardly find place and that in the face of his resolute, self reliant ways regarding the conduct of affairs many other tendencies had to fail and many ideas remain unfulfilled. The first result of the personal change with reference to the government would be that certain ministerial departments would gain larger scope and increased province. Without possessing any formal authorization he believed he was warranted in declaring the government would always be ready to note such desires and ideas as he had referred to and would examine them and if convinced of their practicability put them into effect.

The Labor Situation.

PITTSBURG, April 15. The meeting of yard switchmen of various railway lines centering here which began last evening did not close until nearly daylight. The strike, if ordered, will involve several thousand men.

The demands of the switchmen were presented to the railroad officials this afternoon. An answer will not be given before to-morrow morning. The officials were in conference this afternoon, and it is thought the matter will be compromised.

NEW YORK, April 15. The second session of the sailors and firemen's union had a full attendance. A motion was adopted that a committee of two be appointed to draw up a constitution under which the various unions can work in harmony. A committee was appointed to confer with the local unions on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts and the lake seamen's union, Arthur Vanhove, of Philadelphia, and J. F. O'Sullivan being named as such committee.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 15. Eight hundred carpenters struck to-day for eight hours and 35 cents per hour, in accordance with a notice given to the bosses three months ago. Only about one hundred carpenters in the city are not included in the strike. The bosses have taken no formal action toward meeting the demands but many contractors have verbally agreed to concede them.

LONDON, April 15. The societies affiliated with the London trades council have declared in favor of the eight-hour working day.

Fifty-First Congress.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 15. The senate bill to allow California to make certain grants to educational institutions was placed on the calendar.

Sherman offered a resolution which was agreed to directing the secretary of the interior to communicate to the senate the report of Jesse Spaulding, government director of Pacific railways, as to the general management of such railways.

Wilson, of Iowa, offered a resolution which was agreed to calling on the secretary of the treasury for information as to whether since the adoption of the treasury regulation of September 28, 1889, in reference to the transit of Chinese through the country and their departure therefrom, any Chinese, entered for transit under such regulation, have failed to depart from the United States in due course.

Hawley gave notice that he would call up the Chicago world's fair bill on Friday.

The Montana election case was then taken up and Morgan addressed the senate.

Mo[illegible] referred to the recent democratic [illegible] in Helena and Butte [illegible] to the [illegible] ing the republican [illegible] If elections, he said, had gone the other way, there would have been no trouble in referring the case back to the people. However, he supposed that was now impossible. He declared that if Montana were now coming asking for admission as a state, with all that filth clinging to her skirts, she would be kicked from the threshhold, and he insisted that no man had the right to claim he was a senator from Montana, unless he could do so backed by the certificate of the governor of that state. The certificates had to be signed by the governor and countersigned by the secretary of state. The republican claimants had no such certificates. The democrats had certificates signed by the governor but unfortunately not countersigned by the secretary of state. It would not be very long, he said, until the little cloud in Montana which seemed no bigger than a man's hand, would sweep like a cyclone and tear the republican party all to fragments.

Daniel argued against the majority report.

Vance created amusement by reading the following telegram received from Butte this morning: "Hurrah for honest citizens who vindicate the right; hurrah for the law and liberty, the people won the fight. Republican corruptionists went weeping to their fate, for voters placed the ban upon the men who stole the state. Mourners speak in whispers, 'there's crape upon the door, the G. O. P. was killed by stealing Precinct 34.'"

Hoar said as he understood the facts the democratic majority in Butte, which a year ago was 800 republican, was about 250 and that at Precinct Thirty four there was not a single voter left. All of those apparent voters had gone like last year's snow bank.

Vance replied: "My information is entirely different. Butte gave the republicans a majority last year, and there has been a great 'turn over' in consequence of subsequent proceedings."

Without concluding his speech, Daniel yielded for a motion to adjourn and after an agreement that a vote would be taken at 5 o'clock to-morrow, the senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Boutelle, of Maine, called up the naval appropriation bill, the pending question being upon the amendment adopted in committee of the whole striking out the clause providing for the construction of three coast line of battle ships.

The action of the committee was rejected, yeas 104, nays 132.

Holman of Indiana, moved to recommit the bill with instructions to the committee on naval affairs to report it back with an amendment providing for one battle ship. The motion was lost, yeas 103, nays 123, and the bill then passed.

The committee on rules reported a resolution for the immediate consideration of the bill to define the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States, the previous question to be considered at 5 o'clock to-day.

The resolution was adopted, yeas 118, nays 101.

After a short discussion Mills offered an amendment providing that of the additional circuit judges, one half be appointed from each of the political parties, but it was lost.

The bill then passed, yeas 131, nays 13, the speaker counting a quorum and the house adjourned.

The Mississippi Rising.

NEW ORLEANS, April 15. Reports have been received to-night that the Mississippi river has risen fifteen points during the last twenty-four hours at all stations from Vicksburg to Baton Rouge. The Nita crevasse is widening. Four new breaks are reported in the bayon De Glaise. The Yellow bayou levee, eighteen miles north of this city, is reported as giving way and the water is to-night running over two miles of levee above Turner's bayou. How New Orleans is going to escape a watery fate is now the all absorbing question. The Illinois Central tracks are covered with water for a distance of twenty miles near Pontabatoula. The railroad company has an enormous force of men at work strengthening the weak places.

Anniversary of Lincoln's Death.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., April 15. The 25th anniversary of the death of Abraham Lincoln was appropriately celebrated to-day under the auspices of the Lincoln Memorial league. There were thousands of strangers in the city including a large delegation of G. A. R. men and one of the Yuba Verde. The city was decorated with flags and mourning. There was a large procession to the Lincoln monument where the memorial exercises were held. The monument and sarcophagus were handsomely decorated.

President Harrison and other prominent men sent letters of regret.

New Treasurer Appointed.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 15. At the trial of Steven Archer, treasurer of Maryland, to-day, the attorney general, acting as prosecutor, read a statement from the governor saying that he had reviewed the testimony and declared the office of the treasurer vacant. Governor Jackson to-day appointed Edwin H. Brown, state treasurer.

Stock Market.

NEW YORK, April 15. The stock market to-day showed further improvement. Grangers, Lackawanna, Union Pacific and Pacific Mail were the most prominent stocks in the dealings. Toward the close there was more selling to realize profits on the advance of the past two days, and prices sagged off slowly, the market finally closing heavy but with a marked firm undertone. Evansville and Terre Haute rose 3½, Peoria, Decatur and Evansville 2, and Canadian Pacific 1½. One of the features of the day was the bidding up of silver certificates from 96½ to 100½ on the strength of the action of the senate finance committee last evening. Governments were steady.

Monday afternoon tramps attempted to sell some clothing at the Colorado City glass works, and it was thought perhaps it was stolen. The Colorado City officers arrested nine of them under suspicion that they were the persons who entered D. W. Robbins' store, in this city, Sunday night. Sheriff Jackson was sent for, but upon arrival found that the prisoners had cut the iron bars and escaped from the Colorado City jail.

Mr. Albert Roullier, representing Keppel & Co. of New York, will be at the Antlers to-day with a choice collection of engravings and etchings. This is a rare opportunity for those who wish to [illegible]

B. W. BAKER [illegible]

Judge Severy yesterday [illegible] regarding the motion for a new trial in the [illegible]

Thirteen hundred and fifty-three co-operative societies in Great Britain show that co-operation is no longer an experiment They had in 1891 over nine hundred thousand members. This comprises about one adult in fourteen in Scotland and one in twenty in England. The capital of these societies is about seventy two and one half millions of dollars as against fifty-five millions in 1885 The transactions amounted to one hundred and seventy nine million dollars, which yielded a profit on the capital invested of eight and eight-tenths per cent

The Burlington Boomerang of April 11th speaks of the papers at Colorado Springs as making continual comments on the Hatch trial with a view to influencing the law from taking the proper course The Boomerang is very much mistaken The GAZETTE has been very careful, since it was first proposed to move this case to Colorado Springs not to comment in any way The first comment was on Sunday morning, after one of the counsel for the prosecution said that no case had been made out This is the principle upon which this paper has always acted. When a case in which the public have an interest is before the grand jury, we have always considered it perfectly right and proper to discuss such a case No trial is then in progress which may deprive a man of life or liberty But it is a very different thing when a jury is selected to try a man It is never respectful to a court or right in itself for a newspaper to say anything that shall influence a jury

There is a petition of the property holders on Nevada avenue between the North park and Monument street for the privilege of putting in more attractive shape the trees and turf in the middle of the avenue They propose out of their own pockets to purchase trees to put in the place of those which have died, to put in grass and possibly flower beds and take care of it during the summer, so that it will have a pleasant, kempt look This is something that the city should do when it can afford it. But it may be too early to take it up now. Every reasonable request that these property holders make should be granted It will be trying an experiment which is important to try If it is successful, other property holders may co operate with them so that the whole of Nevada avenue will be taken care of in this way making it a much more beautiful drive, even, than it is now We cannot imagine anything that will make a pleasanter impression on strangers than an improvement of this kind Later it may be well to go still farther and give to each abutting property holder a portion of the street By narrowing the sidewalk a lawn could be put outside, fifteen or twenty feet in width, which would add very much to the attractiveness of our streets We should have the same space of open air and much less space for dust to accumulate and blow over.

The appointment of General Sickles to be sheriff of New York has drawn the New York Sun's attention to the fact that a great many of the important offices in New York are now filled by men appointed by democrats, but who until very recently were republicans General Sickles was a republican office holder under Grant's administration and did not change his politics until the campaign of 1880. Waldo Hutchins was a republican up the time of Horace Greeley's candidacy in 1872, then he became a democrat and is rewarded by the presidency of the park board Thomas C T. Crane was a republican office holder under Hayes' administration He now has the fattest appointment in New York, that of chamberlain General John Cochran was as late as 1883 the republican member of the board of aldermen He is now a police justice and one of the sachems of Tammany George H Foster ten years ago was one of the most active of the republicans in New York county. He served as a republican in the New York state senate and was a candidate for the position of district attorney in 1881 on the republican ticket. He fell by the wayside and is now president of the board of aldermen There are others holding democratic appointments now who were connected with the republican party as late as 1887 Some of these changes from the republican party to the democratic party may have been made from conviction, but it is rather significant that all of these men who have held offices under republican appointment or election are now in good fat positions

The tributes paid to the memory of Samuel J Randall are remarkable They are full as strong and gracious from his democratic and republican foes as from his friends within his party His death is the greatest loss the democracy has suffered since the close of the rebellion. None of the other great leaders who have died added any strength to the party Seymour was a very pure man but there was always a taint of disloyalty which made him weak as a candidate Hendricks was an especial champion of soft money and harmed his party greatly by having his views incorporated in its platforms Tilden proved a wise leader, in that he turned the attention of his party from the past and gave it a chance at the future Hendricks proposed favoring those things which, right or wrong would enable the party to win to-day, but which would be regretted to-morrow. Tilden proposed [illegible] of policy which if carried out would enable his party to keep in power for years. But Tilden's sincerity was always questioned and his record was [illegible] by doubtful railroad transactions. Randall was different from all of them His war record was so good that a remarkable exception was made in his favor by the Grand Army in electing him one of its members. He never favored any line of policy which was dangerous to the country. He did not pretend to be a statesman and know a great deal about a great many things. On his entrance to the house twenty-seven years ago he had no experience in dealing with national questions. He had been what might be called a ward politician But when he began his services in congress, he immediately gave special attention to the question of receipts and expenditures. For years before he became speaker he was on the committee on appropriations and his vote was always on the side of economy When he became speaker he gave his attention very largely to preventing any jobs from getting through the house [illegible] little [illegible] When Mr Carlisle became speaker in 1883, Mr Randall was made chairman of the committee on appropriations With great care and industry he presided over this work and prevented a great deal of wasteful extravagance Sometimes his appropriations were much lower than they should have been But he was not an obstinate economist like Mr Holman His influence for good as a leader of the democratic party was almost entirely in the direction of the control of the national expenses We have spoken of him as the greatest loss that the democratic party has suffered since the war because his leadership was always wise and always a source of strength in the campaign Neither from Mr Randall's acts as speaker nor from his acts as leader of the house, was the democratic party ever put on the defensive No greater compliment can be paid a leader than this It was not because his measures were negative that this was so, on the plan that the only safe man now to run for the presidency is the man who has never done anything to have a record He always had positive views and he had the rare quality of being able to impress these views on a very large number of people He did not have the profound legal knowledge of Thurman nor the broad statesmanlike views of Carlisle But he had a much stronger personality than either one of them His intense conviction, his great courage and his absolute honesty of purpose were always masterful influences whenever he took any position on public affairs The democratic party may have had men of greater intellectual ability, but none whose influence in public affairs was purer or whose leadership was so absolutely free from mistakes

An exchange in speaking of the opera to be produced next Saturday evening by the California Opera company says "Said Pasha the great comic opera success which has been attracting the attention of music loving people and the encomiums of the best critics, was presented for the first time at the Metropolitan last night by the California Opera company There is not a dull phase in the opera, and the dialogue and action are particularly bright The stage settings and the costumes are among the most gorgeous which have been seen in Columbus In a company composed of so many superb voices and so well balanced it might be expected that the chorus would be especially fine, and that no one was disappointed on this score Indeed, the combined effect in the climaxes was so inspiring that the company was compelled to present almost two operas in one, so far as work was concerned, in response to the general applause and enthusiastic expressions of the audience The opera is presented in two acts, the scenes being presented in Constantinople and in the rajah's palace and garden in India and consists in general of a pleasing combination of titled matrimonial and love ventures "

MANITOU SPRINGS.

Mr. J. M. Tyler has rented the Oak cottage for his residence. The house has received a number of repairs.

A Raymond excursion party of one hundred and fifty are due in Manitou this afternoon at 5 30. This is larger than any previous one this season.

An effort is being made to organize a new lodge of K. of P. in Manitou. The movement has so far been successful and twenty eight names have been secured for charter membership.

The Sunny Side house is receiving quite a number of improvements. A system of electric lights and electric call bells is being introduced. A handsome masonry wall is to be erected along the front of the grounds surmounted by an iron fence. An addition which gives a number of extra rooms is being raised at the rear. Captain W. H. Rogers, the proprietor intends to open for the season about the first of next month.

The work on the Pike's Peak road during the past few weeks has not not been such as to show great material progress, though the work has progressed without interruption. The ties and telegraph poles are being transported along the line of the road by means of wagons, temporary bridges having been constructed along the route. Several car loads of rails and a quantity of bridge iron has already arrived and it will not now be long before the track laying will begin at the lower terminus and progress upward. A heavy retaining wall has been built along the Iron springs road at the limit of the depot grounds, and the erection of the depot which will be two stories, built of stone and wood, is soon to be commenced by Lantry & Sons, the contractors.

A New Steam Laundry.

One of the new lines of business in which new methods and machinery are always in demand is the modern steam laundry. An inspection of the monthly United States patent reports will show that new devices in this line are being patented almost daily. The reason for this is plain. Scientific methods have been adopted in all other branches of domestic economy and people are loath to wear clothes which have been indiscriminately washed to pieces with acids and rubbing or the soiled spots covered with starch.

The Empire steam laundry was established in this city about a week ago with all the latest mechanical laundry devices and is already doing a flourishing business. The machinery is well worth seeing. The devices for performing the different manipulations have been each so perfected that they almost seem to have human intelligence and the men in charge are experts with the machines so that the work done is of the very highest class. Messrs. Fuller & Dow, the proprietors, have had extensive experience in other laundries and can be relied on for good and thorough work. Their facilities for doing rapid work are unsurpassed while none of their machinery will wrench or tear the clothes in any way. All flannels are washed by hand in such a manner as to prevent shrinking and all the clothes are dried in a centrifugal drier which throws the water from the clothes without the slightest wringing or tearing.

In addition to their regular laundry work this firm makes a specialty of doing up lace curtains and laces of any size, in the best manner. They also clean all sorts of cloth dresses and suits.

F. W. McKenzie, who has been connected with the Denver Troy steam laundry as agent in this city, is the solicitor for this new laundry and can probably show his many old patrons better work; more expeditiously done.

District court will probably adjourn for the term to-morrow, but a special term of two or three days will be held in May. It is probable that Judge Campbell will refuse to hold court in any county in the district during the hot months, and allow himself and the court officers a much needed and well deserved rest.

W. S. MILLER, [illegible]

Mr H A. Ferguson, of the postoffice force, is on the sick list.

Mr. Thomas Tribe is moving into his new house on West Bijou street.

There are just exactly one hundred pupils in the Mute and Blind Institute

Col Avery Moore, of Denver, was in the city yesterday on Rock Island business.

[illegible] John E Ray of the Deaf Mute [illegible] reported quite ill, but it is [illegible] again very soon.

[illegible] a motion for a new trial in the case of Popejoy vs Anderson was argued and denied.

Wm. A Randall of Trenton, Mo., and Mary A. Boyle of Springfield, Wis., were granted a license to marry yesterday.

The only business transacted in the district court yesterday was an argument in the case of Boles vs Green Mountain Falls company.

The railroads will make a rate of $2.90 for the round trip to day to those who wish to attend the G A R department meeting at Denver.

The agency of A. N Peale & Co. sold yesterday the property at 613 S Cascade to F. D. Hahneakeatt, of Canon City. Consideration, $[illegible]

Mr. Reuben B[illegible] has [illegible] the position of bookkeeper for the Rapid Transit company, with desk room in A. L. [illegible]ton's real estate office.

The state executive committee of the Y. P. S C E, at its meeting in Denver, decided to hold the [illegible] of the state union in this city on Thursday, May 1[illegible].

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Mr. N. C Howell, aged 34, and Mrs. M. E Read, aged 29 Mrs Read is the popular manager of the Arlington restaurant and formerly conducted the Del [illegible]

Mr. H. G. Thornton returned yesterday from his trip to Europe and went immediately to Manitou Park. He is making preparations for a very [illegible] there and those desiring rooms or cottages should apply at once.

The newly elected [illegible] of the fire department took the oath of office yesterday and are now in full charge. Mr. [illegible] spent part of the afternoon in familiarizing himself with the workings of the G[illegible] well alarm

The Van Petts Bros expect to open their new drug store in the Hagerman block during the present week A Gazette representative was permitted to look the room over yesterday and can pronounce it a "symphony" in mirrors and polished wood.

Fountain has been greatly troubled with fires [illegible] by sparks from the Santa Fe engines On Monday of last week, during the high wind, sparks were blown all over the town and some three or four fires were started at one time, and on [illegible] day other fires were caused. The greatest damage so far has been the [illegible] of a [illegible] owned by Dr Reynolds

The town of Coal Creek, Colo., has been terrorized by a fire bug in a manner very similar to Colorado City, and an arrest has been made. It is believed this is R[illegible], the man arrested at Colorado City and held so long, charged with the offense. At least the descriptions tally and R[illegible]'s photograph has been sent to Coal Creek. Several of the witnesses disappeared from Colorado City and it was impossible to hold him longer, and he has disappeared since. The officers who had him in charge state that he appeared [illegible] enough on every topic.

New iron fire escapes are in course of erection on both wings of the old building and will afford an easy and rapid means of escape to the occupants of every floor in case of a visitation from the dread element. In addition to these there is a broad flight of wood stairs on the outside at the rear of each wing, communicating with each floor and the roof of the annex, that can also be used as a means of escape Our household can now feel secure in the knowledge that their safety is provided for as far as science and human foresight can go [Deaf Mute Index.

The ball given by the Rafield Roadsters, at Weber hall last night, was a very great success In spite of the bad weather about forty couples were present, and with the bright lights, music and flowers, managed to forget the dreariness on the outside for a few hours. The Roadsters appeared in their handsome new uniforms. A programme of twenty numbers was danced. Metz' orchestra of four pieces furnished excellent music during the evening. All present declared it one of the most enjoyable events of the season, and mentally, at least, voted Messrs. Witten, Hable, Reed and others, of the committeemen in charge, a vote of thanks for their efforts and decided to attend the next annual ball of the Rafield Roadsters

It is really quite a pleasure to call upon Agent J. M Ellison of the Rio Grande nowadays in his new and elegant uptown offices. He has the first room next the Tejon street alley in the new Bank block, and the most elegant railroad offices in the city If you would ask Colonel Ellison the reason of all the luxury, he would modestly declare that he is personally indifferent to such things, but the Rio Grande must lead in all things and that they are simply in keeping with everything connected with the great scenic route The walls of the [illegible] are in a dark tint and the ceiling handsomely frescoed, all of the counters, [illegible], etc., are of black oak and handsome portieres hung on brass poles [illegible] the private rooms, handsome [illegible] cover the floors and pictures of [illegible] along the line of the road ornament the walls. The effect is most [illegible] throughout, and especially in the evening when the room is lighted by [illegible]. Mr. Ellison occupies [illegible] with the ticket [illegible] [illegible]

The Numerous Transfers in the

Knob Hill ADDITION

Lately? If not you had better look into this matter and buy before all the choice lots are sold.

There is no finer view of the surrounding country to be had anywhere than from this beautiful spot just east of the city. You are guaranteed an abundance of water, both from the water mains now being laid and from the Martin & McGovney irrigating ditch.

These lots are but seven minutes ride from the heart of this city, the price on them is very low, and the terms of payment so easy that there is absolutely no excuse for anyone not securing at least a pair of them.

We will cheerfully show you this property, as well as any other in and around the city should contemplate investing.
